

EVALUATION OF DESIGN PROJECTS AND GRADUATION PROJECTS

- Each project will be presented by a student to the design project/graduation project board of the computer engineering department. Each project will be evaluated and graded by the board cooperatively.
- Each group will prepare a presentation and a report file. Both files will be delivered to the project board at the time of presentation.
- Your final grading will be based on your second presentation and report.
- Presentation and report files must contain detailed information about completed part of your project.
